DUI Van In-Place During Low-Rider Event

The Washington State Patrol's Mobile DUI Van was in place overnight Saturday during Yakima's Low-Rider Convention. Yakima area law enforcement used the van staffed with WSP breath test technicians to process DUI arrests. This allowed the arresting officers to be free to continue enforcement efforts essentially saving half the normal processing time.

Area Law Enforcement agencies participating included: Yakima Police Department, Yakima County Sheriffs Office, and the Washington State Patrol.

Total DUI's processed using the Mobile DUI Van:

Eight DUI's were processed during the event.
Four DUI's were under the age of 21.
